

Religious Studies Assessment Criteria / Levels

	Identify	Knowledge	Describe	Apply
7 A	Ability to identify and highlight important information about religious practices and beliefs of the religion studied.	Able to accurately demonstrate knowledge in detail and structure. Robust knowledge and use of technical vocabulary, used appropriately. Few errors in written communication.	Fairly complete description of religious practices and belief. Few errors in written communication.	Ability to apply knowledge or analyse religious practices and beliefs in a fairly complete manner.
5 C	Some relevant knowledge and information about religious practices and beliefs of the religion studied.	Able to demonstrate knowledge in some detail and structure. Knowledge and use of specialist and technical vocabulary, though not always used appropriately. Some errors in written communication.	Ability to describe religious practices and belief in some detail. Some errors in written communication.	Some ability to apply knowledge or analyse religious practices and beliefs.
3 E	A small amount of knowledge about religious practices and beliefs of the religion studied	Able to list basic information. Some knowledge of specialist vocabulary. Some errors in written communication.	Weak, little or no description or explanation of religious practices and belief. Some errors in written communication.	Unable to apply knowledge or analyse religious practices and beliefs in any complex manner.
Working Towards	Show little ability to identify basic religious practices and beliefs of the religion studied. Lots of errors in written communication.	Show little or no knowledge of the religion studied. Little or no knowledge of specialist vocabulary. Lots of errors in written communication.	Little or no description of religious practice and belief. Lots of errors in written communication.	Unable to apply knowledge or analyse religious practices and beliefs in any complex manner.